Funding opportunities Europe

Name	Program Level (Master, PhD)	Short Description (criteria, deadlines...)	Countries applicable	More info
Jean Monnet Scholarship Programme	Master, PhD	Academic/administrative staff of universities and senior undergraduate/graduate. The scholarship covers the tuition fee, living expenses, and a fixed amount for various expenses. Deadlines typically fall in late October or early November of the year preceding the academic start date.	Turkey	Read more
Fundacion "La Caixa"	Master, Ph.D	A competitive fellowship program for Spanish and Portuguese nationals pursuing postgraduate studies or research abroad, covering tuition fees, monthly living expenses, travel, installation and other study-related costs.	Spain, Portugal	Read more
DAAD Scholarships for Master's Studies Abroad	Mater	This program holds a monthly stipend of €992, plus travel allowance and health insurance coverage sponsored by the German government for studies abroad. The deadline varies by specific program but generally falls between October and December for studies starting in the following winter semester	Germany	Read more
SU (Statens Uddannelsesstøtte) - Study Abroad	Master	Denmark's generous state educational grant (SU) is fully portable. Danish citizens can take their monthly government stipend with them to fund a full master's	Denmark	Read more degree at an approved foreign university within the EU/EEA. Applications are rolling, but students can apply up to a month in advance (e.g., mid-June for a semester starting in July/August).

Lånekassen (Norwegian State Educational Loan Fund)	Master, PhD	Norway provides a substantial financial support package (a mix of convertible grants and favorable loans) for Norwegian students pursuing full degrees abroad. trict deadlines apply: November 15 for the autumn semester or full academic year, and March 15 for the spring semester	Norway	Read more
CSN Grants for Studies Outside Sweden p	Master, PhD	The Swedish Board of Student Finance (CSN) allows Swedish citizens to apply for government grants and student loans to fund full-time degree programs abroad. The funding is calculated based on the cost of living in the destination country. Deadlines are on a rolling basis. Applications should be submitted shortly before the semester begins to ensure timely disbursement.	Sweden	Read more