

Resisting the inequality tide: in search for the nature and roots of Belgium's remarkable resilience, and the lessons this may hold.

Workshop 30 januari 2025

Universiteit Antwerpen, R gebouw, Rodestraat 14, 2000 Antwerpen, S.R-A001

9.45am	Welkom en Koffie
10am	WELKOM EN INTRODUCTIE TOT BOEK Ive Marx & Bruno Blondé (UAntwerpen)
10.25am	PITCH – HISTORISCHE KADERING The Low Countries' Paradox, an historical frame of interpretation Wouter Ryckbosch (VUB)
10.35am	DEEL 2: HEDENDAAGS DEEL Income and wealth equality in Belgium and its drivers Ella-Marie Asal, Koen Decanq, Sarah Kuypers & Gerlinde Verbist (UAntwerpen)
11.15am	The Dark Side. On poverty, social exclusion and Matthew effects Bea Cantillon (UAntwerpen), Gabriele Mariani (UAntwerpen), Wim Van Lancker (KULeuven)
11.55am	The nature and impact of social corporatism in Belgium Wouter Zwyzen (ETUI)
12.35pm	Lunch in Agora
1.30pm	DEEL 3: HISTORISCH DEEL Social inequality and the little divergence in the Middle Ages Sam Geens (UAntwerpen)
2.10pm	Economic inequality in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries Nicolas Brenninkmeijer & Daan Van den Bussche (UAntwerpen)
2.50pm	Koffie
3.05pm	Consumption Inequality, 15th-20th centuries Ilja Van Damme and Bruno Blondé (UAntwerpen)
3.45pm	Perceptions of social (in)equality before the Welfare State (1830-1914) Marnix Beyen (UAntwerpen)
4.30pm	Afsluiting – Ive Marx & Bruno Blondé