GUIDELINES

MID-TERM CHECK | 14 SEPTEMBER

Tour de table by supervisors: all the supervisors, associated partners representatives and Scientific Advisory Board members will briefly introduce themselves and their research team, including their role within the network (~2 min each, no slides).

DC fellows' individual presentations: the DC fellows will introduce themselves (incl. background) and their individual research projects. They will also provide a brief update on their research progress (~10 min each, with slides). DCs can choose between using the OncoProTools slides template (HERE) or a free format meeting all the EU funding visibility regulations.

Restricted session between DC fellows and REA Project Office:

- It is intended to allow the DC fellows to discuss their experiences within the network in terms of training foreseen, supervision arrangements, progress and impact on their future careers.
- The DCs can decide whether to meet in a big group or in smaller groups. Should any of the DCs wish to meet individually with the Project Officer, this is also possible upon request.
- If the DCs meet together with the Project Officer, the DCs' representative may summarize the DCs' feedback in a few slides to briefly present their experience in OncoProTools and highlight positive aspects and aspects for improvement. Questions can be collected upfront as a basis for discussion during the meeting. DCs are responsible for preparing this meeting without support from the Coordinator Office.

The REA guidelines for the Mid-Term Check are available on the OncoProTools Microsoft Team.

ANNUAL MEETING | 15 SEPTEMBER

Scientific discussions led by Work-Package leaders: work-package leaders will prepare a 2-slide introduction to the work package and the main goals based on the project proposal (available HERE). They will also open the principal questions for discussion. WP-leaders can choose between using the OncoProTools slides template (HERE) or a free format meeting all the EU funding visibility regulations.

CONSORTIUM DINNER

14 SEPTEMBER | 19:00 (7:00 PM)

CHAPITÔ À MESA

ADDRESS: COSTA DO CASTELO 7, 1149-079 LISBOA, PORTUGAL

Chapitô à Mesa is a restaurant serving excellent and top-quality traditional Portuguese cuisine. It offers an unbeatable panoramic view over the city and the Tagus River. According to the customer reviews, it is a unique place to go when the sun sets.

Get to the Restaurant

Chapitô à Mesa is located close to Lisbon Cathedral and the castle. The closest Metro Station is Terreiro do Paço (Blue Line).

From the meeting venue (FFUL), you can take the Metro from Cidade Universitaria (Yellow Line), change at Marquês de Pombal to the Blue Line, and come out at Terreiro do Paço. Then, it will be ca. 15-min walk up with some paths and stairs to the restaurant.
