

VIDEO - Big tax debate

Watch the big fiscal election debate 19/03/2019

On the occasion of the fifth anniversary of Antwerp Tax Academy and the 80th anniversary of the law firm Tiberghien Advocaten, the second Great Fiscal Election Debate will take place on Tuesday 19 March 2019. The central theme is fiscal policy in Belgium: evaluation 2014-2019, forecast 2019-2024.

The debate is conducted by a panel of politicians and by a reflection panel composed of independent (experience) experts.

Participation in the debate is free, but prior online registration is required.

A voluntary financial contribution to support scientific research within ATA is possible. A tax certificate for donations of € 40 or more is provided.

Recognition OVB for two standard credits, recognition IAB for 2.25 hours of continuing education.

Programme

6 pm

Reception (with coffee) and registration

6.50 pm

Welcome and introduction prof.dr. Bruno Peeters (chairman Antwerp Tax Academy)

19:00

Evaluation of tax reforms in Belgium 1992-2019

dr. Gerlinde Verbist (member management committee Antwerp Tax Academy – CSB directie Herman Deleeck)

19:15

Debate

Tax policy in Belgium: evaluation 2014-2019 and prognosis 2019-2024

Moderator: Kathleen Cools - journalist VRT

Political panel:

Meyrem Almaci (Green)

Griet Smaers (CD&V)

John Crombez (sp.a)

Jos Lantmeeters (N-VA)

Carina Van Cauter (Open Vld)

Reflection panel:

Johan Willemen (chairman Willemen Group)

Peter Vanden Houte (chief economist ING)

Bernard Peeters (Tiberghien lawyers)

8.50 pm

Final discussion with Alexander De Croo (Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Finance and Development Cooperation)

9.15 pm

Reception (provided by Tiberghien lawyers)

Location

University of Antwerp

city campus

Aula Rector Dhanis

Little Kauwenberg 14

2000 Antwerp

Organization

Antwerp Tax Academy and Tiberghien Advocaten in collaboration with Center for Professional development in law.