

← Activities and education

Fiscal policy in the context of the Covid crisis

Tuesday 19 October 2021, 5-7 pm

An intergenerational justice perspective

I register

Program

5.00 p.m.

Introduction by prof. Bruno Peeters, president of Antwerp Tax Academy

5.05 p.m.

Lecture by prof. Neil H. Buchanan (University of Florida) entitled: Tax policy in the context of the Covid crisis – an intergenerational justice perspective

5.45 p.m.

Discussion with prof. Erik Schokkaert (KULeuven, Research center of Public Economics) and Prof. Gerlinde Verbist (UAntwerpen, Herman Deleeck Center for Social Policy),

6.15 p.m.

Keynote speaker minister of Social Affairs and Public Health Frank Vandenbroucke (to be confirmed)

6.30 p.m.

Network drink

This event is a joint organisation of Antwerp Tax Academy with Antwerpen in Fiscalibus.

Who is Neil Buchanan?

Professor Neil H. Buchanan joined Florida University Law in 2019 as the James J. Freeland Eminent Scholar Chair in Taxation and as the Director of Global Scholarly Initiatives. He frequently lectures and serves as a visiting scholar at universities around the world, most recently at Cambridge University and the University of Vienna, among others.

He is nationally and internationally known for his groundbreaking work on intergenerational justice, retirement security, constitutional issues in government budgeting, and a fundamental critique of orthodox economic theory.

He is quoted often in the press, and he has published essays in The Boston Globe, The Hill, The New York Times, and elsewhere.

Professor Buchanan graduated from Vassar College and received his J.D. from the University of Michigan, A.M. and Ph.D. degrees in Economics from Harvard University, and a Ph.D. in Laws from Monash University in Australia. He clerked on the United States Court of Appeals for the 10th Circuit.

Professor Buchanan teaches both J.D. and LL.M. students at UF Levin College of Law.

Location

University of Antwerp

Stadscampus

Promotiezaal Grauwzusters

Building S

Lange Sint-Annastraat 7

2000 Antwerp

Registration fee

The registration fee is € 100. This price includes the lecture, the discussion and the network reception.

Discount for members of Antwerp in Fiscalibus (alumni master in tax law UAntwerp) (50% on the registration price)

Staff and students of UAntwerp can register free of charge.

Registration

Electronically only through this web page.

Each registration is binding and cannot be cancelled. Replacement by a colleague is possible with simple written notification to the organizers.

The registration fee is paid within 30 days of receipt of the debit note to KBC account number BE69 7350 1176 5478 of Nexus, CST-UAntwerp, Venusstraat 23, 2000 Antwerp.

The prices stated are prices exclusive of VAT (Exemption VAT due to article 44 §2 4°), because Nexus/ATA is a non-taxable legal person in the current state of the legislation. The legislator can change this and Nexus/ATA therefore reserves the right to charge this VAT in case the legislator decides to do so.

Nexus is recognised as a training provider in the SME Portfolio (KMO portefeuille) system. Using this system could enable participants to save up to 30% of the registration fee. SME Portfolio applications must be submitted no later than 14 days after the course start date. The participant undertakes to respect the rules set out by the Agency for Innovation and Entrepreneurship. The accreditation number for Nexus Antwerp's SME portfolio is DV.0100321.

Recognition

Following accreditations are pending: OVB, ITAA, IJB and IGO.

Target audience

Everybody interested in (tax) policy and the intergenerational justice perspective (including lawyers, economists, political and social scientists, ...)

Corona measures

The University of Antwerp is following a number of corona measures for this event. We would like to list these for you:

- You can take the COVID certificate with you on the COVIDsafe app as well as printed on paper or as a download PDF.
- The University of Antwerp does not offer rapid tests as an alternative to a PCR test for people who do not have a valid certificate. So make sure you have a valid COVID certificate or certainty about an alternative before you leave for the event.
- Thanks to the COVID certificate, this event can take place without mouth masks and social distancing. Keep in mind that you have a mouth mask with you, as a mouth mask may be necessary outside the closed space of this event and in and around the buildings of the University of Antwerp.

Registration

Keep me posted

Contact

Antwerp Tax Academy

Show email address

Tel. +32 3 265 31 15

Stadscampus, S.V.091

Venusstraat 23

2000 Antwerp, Belgium

