Individual Paper in-person

SUBMISSION LINK:

<https://app.oxfordabstracts.com/stages/84037/submitter>

Paper presentations should be no longer than 15 minutes, followed by 15 minutes for discussion. The organizers will group individual presentations into 90-minute sessions. Please note that the committee will do its utmost to gather papers with the same theme or in the same field together in a panel, but that this might prove difficult sometimes.

If you present together with a collaborator, please write both names, but choose one corresponding author. The organisation will only communicate to the corresponding author whose responsibility it is to share the information.

By filling out the short summary of 300 character, you give permission to publish this summary in the conference programme. If you want only the title of your presentation to be announced publicly, please leave this box blank.

Workshops (in-person)

SUBMISSION LINK:

<https://app.oxfordabstracts.com/stages/84040/submitter>

Workshops of 90 minutes are characterised by experimentation, collaboration, interaction, improvisation... The aim of a workshop is not to discuss already established research results but rather to organise a collective experience, creating possibilities for surprise, exploration and learning. The proposal should indicate specifics on the required support or material conditions for the workshop, including a maximum number of persons per workshop (including the convenors). Add learning outcomes to the template as well.

If you convene the workshop together with a collaborator, please write both names, but choose one corresponding author. The organisation will only communicate to the corresponding author whose responsibility it is to share the information.
