3. Application procedure
Application procedure

Once you meet our admission requirements, there are three options to enrol

- You have direct access OR
- You first need to apply through Mobility Online OR
- You need to follow a specific admission procedure
NOT through Mobility Online

✓ Applications for Bachelor programmes based upon a secondary degree issued in an EEA member state and mentioned on the website (under ‘Diploma requirements’) *
✓ Applications for Master and Advanced Master programmes based upon a Flemish or Dutch Bachelor or Master degree, mentioned in the admission requirements of the specific programme *
✓ Applications for:
  - Erasmus Mundus Joint Master programmes
  - Interuniversity Master programmes
  - Some Advanced Master programmes (IOB programmes and Think Water)
  - Postgraduate courses and PhD
  - Programme components only

ALWAYS through Mobility Online

✓ All other situations
✓ Candidates that require a student visa

* Applicants must also fulfil our before mentioned admission requirements
As most of our international students belong to ‘All other situations’ and/or need a student visa, we focus in this presentation on application through our online application tool Mobility Online.
Application procedure

- Through MO? → YES!
- Check our admission requirements
- Collect your application documents
- Submit the soft copy of your application documents through MO
- Mind the deadlines!

Eligible?

- Prepare the hard copy of your application documents
- Mind our legalisation requirements!
- Send your hard copies to the Registrar’s Office
- Mind the deadlines!

Accepted?

- Receive your Letter of Acceptance (LoA)
- Upon arrival, enrol online or in person at the Registrar’s Office
- Check which documents to bring along!

Welcome!

Once submitted, your application file follows these steps:

- Step 1: Screening on content and level through the soft copies of your documents
- Step 2: Screening of your language proficiency document(s)
- Step 3: Screening on authenticity of your hard copy documents

The combined evaluation results of all steps determine if your application is accepted or not

- You get a Letter of Acceptance (LoA)!
- You are informed about the reason of the rejection
Step 1: Screening on content and level

- The Admission Board screens your educational background and your motivation to determine your access to the programme.
- This process takes up to 6 weeks after uploading the soft copies of your application.
Step 2: Screening of language proficiency

✓ Your language proficiency is checked

✓ The submitted proof of your language proficiency is evaluated to see if it meets the requirements
Step 3: Screening on authenticity of hard copy documents

✓ The Registrar’s Office screens the submitted hard copies of your documents and verifies the authenticity of your degree

✓ If needed, your previous educational institution(s) is (are) contacted

✓ This process takes up to 4 weeks
