Contacting the moon

Urs Frauenfelder

(Augsburg)

The restricted three-body problem describes the motion of a massless body attracted by two massive bodies according to Newton's law of gravitation. In the talk I will discuss how this problem is related to contact topology.