

Luc Van 't dack has provided, until his retirement at the end of 2018, administrative and technical support for a number of projects for the PLASMANT group. He is currently serving as the Workshop Secretary of the European Microbeam Analysis Society (EMAS). He is also involved in the organisation of conferences, workshops and symposia organised by some of the research groups of the UA Department of Chemistry.