

Presentation of the MERIAL Award 2017

Merial Award

The Merial Award is a professional award for young promising researchers in the field of veterinary or medical parasitology. The Prize consists of a certificate and a cash prize of € 3000. The award is intended to reward scientific quality and to encourage continued professional ambition in parasitology. On Thursday 18 May the award was presented at a scientific meeting of the Netherlands Society for Parasitology in Utrecht.

Photo: Prof. Guy Caljon receives the prestigious MERIAL Award 2017 for his work on insect-transmitted parasitic infections.

From left to right: Dr. Renske van Rossem (MERIAL), Prof. Guy Caljon en Prof. Lodewijk Tielens (chairman of the jury)