

Wednesday

18h00-20h00 Welcome & drinks

Thursday

9h00-9h30 Registration & coffee

9h30-9h45 Welcome & introduction: Geert Van Eekert

Keynote lectures

Chair: Geert Van Eekert

9h45-11h00 Marcus Duewelling: Kantian ethics and aesthetic experience

11h00-11h15 Coffee break

11h15-12h30 Pauline Kleingeld: The first step to the gallows: Kant on moral consciousness and choice

12h30-14h00 Lunch (Agora)

Paper sessions

Chair: Luc Van Liedekerke

Chair: Karin de Boer

Chair: Liesbet Vanhaute

14h00-14h45 Wiebke Deimling:
Kant's pragmatic concept of emotions

Robin Dillon:
Arrogance, humility and self-respect

Sylvie Loriaux:
Deception, right and international relations

14h50-15h35 Krista Thomason:
Kantian ethics and the negative emotions

Richard Dean:
Stigmatization and denormalization as public health policies

Alice Pinheiro Walla: Wide duties of virtue and prudence in a footnote of the Metaphysics of Morals

15h40-16h25 Bryan Lueck:
Contempt and the moral life

Leonard Randall:
The duty of right to preserve one's honor

16h30-17h00 Coffee break

Evening lecture

Chair: Wim Dubbinck

17h00-18h15 Barbara Herman Doing Too Much

18h15-19h30 Break

19h30 Dinner

Friday

9h-9h15 Coffee

Paper sessions

Chair: Liesbet Vanhaute

Chair: Else Walravens

9h15-10h00 Lucy Allais: Kant on giving to beggars Mavis Louise Biss: Moral imagination and Kantian ethics

10h05-10h50 Stefano Bacin: Kant on the duty of gratitude Martin Sticker: What would moral life lose without common human reason?

10h55-11h10 Coffee break

11h10-11h55 Kate Moran: The trouble with mutual aid Samuel Kerstein: The mere means principle and research on biological samples

12h00-12h45 Erik Boot: The compatibility of Kant's Rechtsphilosophie with socio-economic human rights Dietmar Heidemann: Kant on moral friendship as a duty

12h45-14h00 Lunch (Agora)

Keynote lectures

Chair: Bart Vandenabeele

14h00-15h15 Jens Timmermann: Autonomy and Sympathy in Kant's Doctrine of Virtue, §§34-35

15h15-15h30 Coffee

15h30-16h45 Paul Guyer: Freedom in Action: Kant on the Internal and External Use of Choice

16h45 Drinks (Agora)