

LANTERNS AT THE FAIRGROUND

A two-day event organized by B-magic and the Magic Lantern Society in Brussels
5-6 April 2019

Practicalities

VENUES

Cinematek

Brussels: Rue Baron Horta 9, Brussels – Belgium

The symposium will take place in the Cinematek in Brussels. Cinematek is at a walking distance from the Central Station (Brussel Centraal/Bruxelles Central).

Greylight Projects

Brussels: Rue Brialmont 11, 1210 Saint-Josse-ten-Noode

The exhibition BLACKOUT, curated by Julian Ross. The performance Frankenstein Phantasmagoria by Jeremy and Carolyn Brooker will take place at Greylight Projects.

The independent artist run organization is situated in the municipality of Sint-Joost-ten-Node (close to the Botanique). Housed in a former cloister, Greylight includes gallery spaces in the basement and the chapel. The building is at a 10 minute walk from Bruxelles Nord and 10 minutes with public transport from Bruxelles Central.

TRAVELLING TO BRUSSELS

BY AIR

Brussels International Airport

You can reach Brussels by flight to Brussels International Airport. From the airport you can easily travel to the city center by taking the train or the airport express bus.

Brussels South - Charleroi Airport

A bit further from Brussels, but at a one-hour drive from the city with the Brussels-city Shuttle or by train (preceded by a shuttle bus to the station) is Brussel South – Charleroi Airport. If you travel with Ryan Air, you mostly arrive at this airport station.

BY TRAIN

Brussels has three main train stations: Bruxelles-Midi, Bruxelles-Central, Bruxelles-Nord.

International railways, such as TGV, Thalys, Eurostar, ICE and Intercity connects Brussels with several European cities. Find more information about international railway connections through this link.
